Warren Hoover, First Barry County Soldier in France.

SERGEANT WARREN HOOVER COMES HOME

First Barry County Boy in France who Was a Member of the First Division and Who Saw Much Service.

Sergeant Warren Hoover, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hoover, arrived home Thursday morning, from Jefferson Barracks where he was mustered out of service. He is in good health and looks fine although he has seen some of the hardest fighting in the world war.

Warren Hoover and Russell L. Hobbs, who was killed in action, were the first Barry county boys to enlist after the United States entered the war. They were also the first Barry county boys in France, going over on the same transport. They left Hoboken N. J., July 27, 1917 and arrived in France, August 13, 1917. For his eighteen months service, Warren wears three gold stripes.

Although he has been in some of the most terrible fighting of the war, has been gassed and slightly wounded, the young soldier's spirit remains the same as when he enlisted and he says that the Americans should have been given six months more time to have finished the job they set out to do. He was at the heights of Sedan when the armistice was signed and under fire from the Germans up to 11 o'clock the morning of November 11.

Warren was in the First Division of the regular army. His division saw activities as follows: Sommerville Sector, ten kilometers southeast of Nancy, October 21 to November 20, 1917; Ansaerville sector, January 15 to April 3, 1918; Cantigny sector, April 25 to July 7 (battle of Cantigny May 28 to 30); Soissons operation, Marne counter-offensive, July 18 to 24; Sazerais sector, August 7 to 24; St. Mihiel operation, September 12 and 13; Argonne-Meuse offensive, October 1, to 12; operations against Mouzon, November 5 and 6; operation south and southwest of Sedan, November 7 and 8; march on Coblenz bridgehead, November 17 to December 15, 1918.

The First Division captured as prisoners 165 officers and 6,804 men. Their total advance against opposition was 51 kilometers.

The Division Insignia is the crimson figure "1" on khaki background. It was chosen because the numeral "1" represents the number of the division. Also, as proudly claimed, because it was the first division in France, first in sector, first to fire a shot at the Germans, first to attack, first to conduct a raid, first to be raided, first to capture prisoners, first to inflict casualties, first to suffer casualties, first to be cited singly in General Orders, first in the number of Division Corps and Army Commanders and General Staff officers produced from its personnel.

Warren claims that the Americans were first in Sedan, but allowed the French to have the honor of making the capture. He speaks admiringly of the French as soldiers.

Mrs. Ed Hundley and children and her mother, Mrs. A. L. Hobson, of Afton, Okla., went to Peirce City, Thursday morning to visit relatives.
